

MIDNIGHT IN MELBOURNE CODE OF CONDUCT

Midnight in Melbourne is an ongoing theatrical roleplay which has many people of diverse backgrounds attending. To ensure we have a mutual understanding, please read the following carefully.

By entering this event, I acknowledge that:

- I am over 18 years and have legal autonomy.
- I will abide by the rules of our host venue and Liquor Licensing Victoria.
- I have been given a Player Rulebook.
- I understand how the HELP signal works (as written on the back of the Player Rulebook), will use it if I feel uncomfortable, and will respect it when others use it.
- I will note where the Quiet Room is, will use it if I require it, and will respect others' use of it.
- I understand that this event contains horror themes including (but not limited to) bloodshed, vampirism, murder, stalking, exploitation, corruption, humiliation, ostracism, othering, violence, torture, blasphemy, fetish, eroticism and violation. I understand that some of the themes and performances may be confronting.
- I understand that I and the character I perform as are distinct and separate, that other performers at this event are likewise distinct from the characters they perform, and that vampires are not real.
- I will, when not in character, treat attendees and staff with respect and courtesy, getting permission before touching them or taking photographs.
- I understand that Midnight in Melbourne may take photographic or video footage of me during the night which may be used later for promotional purposes and will inform the team if I do not want particular images used.
- I will try my best to follow the instruction of the Storytellers and event staff.
- I will inform the event team if I have concerns about the event or the behaviour of staff or attendees.
- I do not hold Midnight in Melbourne or Sub Club liable for any loss or damage to my personal property.

Midnight in Melbourne recognises that we perform on the lands of the Wurundjeri Woi-wurrung of the Kulin nation and pay our respect to their Elders past and present.

THANK YOU,
& ENJOY YOUR EVENING
